DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of [REDACTED] who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish he had continuously resided in the United States since January 12, 2010.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he is unable to provide additional documentation to establish continuous residence as he was not residing in the United States before January 12, 2010. The applicant submits additional copies of documents that were previously provided. The applicant requests that his application be reconsidered.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state as designated by the Attorney General, now the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security (Secretary), is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Secretary may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
    - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
    - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;

(iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

(iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

The term continuously physically present, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means actual physical presence in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous physical presence in the United States by virtue of brief, casual, and innocent absences as defined within this section.

The term continuously resided, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means residing in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous residence in the United States by reason of a brief, casual and innocent absence as defined within this section or due merely to a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside the control of the alien.

Persons applying for TPS offered to [REDACTED] must demonstrate continuous residence in the United States since January 12, 2010, and continuous physical presence in the United States since January 21, 2010.

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. Applicants shall submit all documentation as required in the instructions or requested by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). The sufficiency of all evidence will be judged according to its relevancy, consistency, credibility, and probative value. To meet his or her burden of proof the applicant must provide supporting documentary evidence of eligibility apart from his or her own statements. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(b).

Along with his TPS application, the applicant submitted copies of: 1) the biographical page of his [REDACTED] passport; 2) a letter dated May 27, 2010, from [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] indicating that the applicant has been receiving mental health and medical services since February 16, 2010; and 3) his Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, which reflected he was admitted into the United States on January 21, 2010, as a nonimmigrant visitor.

On July 14, 2010, the applicant was requested to submit evidence establishing his continuous residence since January 12, 2010. The applicant was informed that if he had a brief, casual, and innocent absence from the United States during this period, or a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside his control, he was to submit evidence to support the absence. The applicant, in response, asserted that he came to the United States on January 21, 2010, to seek psychological and trauma treatment. The applicant provided additional copies of the documents previously submitted with his TPS application along with copies of the pages from his passport, which reflected entry stamps into [REDACTED] and the United States from 2007 to 2009 and exit stamps from [REDACTED] from 2007 to 2010.

The director determined that the applicant had not established continuous residence in the United States during the requisite period, and denied the application on October 26, 2010.

The applicant's statements on appeal have been considered. However, the applicant was not continuously residing in the United States on or before January 12, 2010. Therefore, he has failed to establish that he has met the criteria described in section 244(c)(1)(A)(ii) of the Act and the related regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(c). The AAO is bound by the clear language of the statute and lacks the authority to change the statute. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application for TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
