DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew the applicant's TPS because he failed to: 1) submit requested court documentation relating to his criminal record; 2) provide good cause why he did not re-register for TPS since filing his application in 2003; and 3) establish that he maintained continuous physical presence since March 9, 2005.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1) provides that the director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS at any time if the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time the alien thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. The director may also withdraw TPS for the applicant's failure to maintain continuous physical presence, and for failure without good cause to register annually within 30 days before the end of each 12-month period after the granting of TPS. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(2) and (3).

On appeal, the applicant does not address the basis for the withdrawal of his TPS or provide any evidence to overcome the director's findings.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to overcome the director's finding and has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
