DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the director did not take into consideration post-conviction relief for his second conviction. Counsel asserts that the applicant was never advised of the immigration consequences of a guilty plea. Counsel asserts that documentation and motions relating to the second conviction are currently being processed and filed in the appropriate courts in Iowa.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The record contains court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the Iowa District Court for Black Hawk County, which reflects that on May 3, 2009, the applicant pled guilty to violating Iowa Code section 123.46, public intoxication, a misdemeanor. The applicant was ordered to pay a fine.

The record also contains court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the District Court of Maryland for Montgomery County, which reflects that on June 24, 2003, the applicant pled guilty to violating Article 21 section 902, driving/attempting to drive vehicle while impaired by alcohol, a misdemeanor. The applicant was placed on probation for one year and ordered to pay a fine.

Counsel's statements on appeal have been considered. The AAO, however, may only look to the judicial records to determine whether the person had been convicted of the crime, and may not look behind the conviction to reach an independent determination concerning guilt or innocence. Pablo v. INS, 72 F.3d 110, 113 (9th Cir. 1995); Gouveia v. INS, 980 F.2d 814, 817 (1st Cir. 1992); and Matter of Roberts, 20 I&N Dec. 294 (BIA 1991).

Without certified documentation from the court indicating that the conviction has been vacated for underlying procedural or constitutional defect having to do with the merits of the case, the misdemeanor conviction continues to effect immigration consequences. Matter of Adamiak, 23 I&N Dec. 878 (BIA 2006), Matter of Pickering, 23 I&N Dec. 621 (BIA 2003), Matter of Roldan, 22 I. & N. Dec. 512 (BIA 1999).

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). There is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
