INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the California Service Center. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

Along with her application, the applicant submitted a copy of her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, which reflected she was admitted into the United States on January 18, 2010, as a nonimmigrant visitor. The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish she had continuously resided in the United States since January 12, 2010.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i) provides that an application or petition that is submitted with the wrong filing fee shall be rejected as improperly filed.

The record indicates that the director issued the Notice of Decision on November 9, 2010, and it was mailed to the applicant at her address of record. The appeal was received at the California Service Center on November 29, 2010; however, it was rejected as the correct fee was not submitted. While the director, in her Notice of Decision, indicated that the fee to file an appeal on Form I-290B was $585.00, that fee was increased to $630.00 effective November 23, 2010.¹ The appeal was returned to the applicant on November 29, 2010, with instructions to file the correct fee. The appeal was subsequently received at the California Service Center on December 9, 2010; however, it was rejected as the correct fee was not submitted.² The appeal was returned to the applicant on the same date, with instructions to file the correct fee. The appeal with the correct fee was received at the California Service Center on December 27, 2010, 48 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

Here, the untimely appeal does not meet the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider. Therefore, there is no requirement to treat the appeal as a motion under 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2).

As the appeal was untimely filed and does not qualify as a motion, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
