DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew the applicant's TPS because she had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant does not address the basis for the withdrawal of TPS. The applicant submits additional copies of the court dispositions relating to her convictions.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

On March 15, 2011, the applicant was requested to submit certified judgment and conviction documents from the courts for all arrests. In response, the applicant provided court documents from the Harris County District Clerk of Texas, which revealed the following:

- On December 16, 2009, the applicant was charged with endangering a child, a violation of Texas Penal Code 22.041(c), a state jail felony. On May 27, 2010, the charge was reduced to a Class A misdemeanor and the applicant was convicted of the charge. The applicant was sentenced to serve six days in jail and ordered to pay a fine. Case no. [REDACTED].
- On October 19, 2009, the applicant was charged with driving while intoxicated – first offense, a violation of Texas Penal Code section 49.04, a Class B misdemeanor. On March 4, 2010, the applicant was convicted of the charge. The applicant was sentenced to serve 180 days in jail, ordered to pay a fine and was placed on probation for one year. Case no. [REDACTED].

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to her two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). There is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
