DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the director's decision to withdraw the applicant's TPS is in error as there is no record of a reckless driving conviction in the General District Court of Frederick County, Virginia.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

The record reflects that the applicant was arrested for permitting an unlicensed person to drive a vehicle¹ [REDACTED], and for reckless driving² [REDACTED]

A review of the record reflects that the director, in his decision to withdraw TPS, inadvertently indicated that the applicant had been convicted in the Frederick County General District Court of

² Virginia Code section 46.2-852.

Virginia of both offenses. The court documentation indicates that the applicant was convicted in Case no. [REDACTED] in the General District Court of Loudoun County, Virginia of reckless driving on [REDACTED] 2008, and in Case no. [REDACTED] in the General District Court of Frederick County of permitting an unlicensed person to drive a vehicle [REDACTED]

On December 22, 2011, the AAO issued a notice to the applicant advising him of the director's error and that it was the AAO's intent to dismiss the appeal based upon his two misdemeanor convictions. The applicant was advised that his reckless driving conviction had occurred in the Loudoun County General District Court of Virginia. The applicant was granted 30 days in which to supplement his appeal. The record shows that as of the date of this decision, the applicant has not submitted a response. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
