DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel citing Padilla v. Kentucky, 130 S. Ct. 2473 (U.S 2010) asserts that the applicant was not advised of the immigration consequences of a guilty plea. Counsel asserts that the applicant is working with a criminal defense attorney to address his prior criminal convictions. Counsel requests that the applicant's TPS be reconsidered while he is in the process of addressing his past convictions.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

The record contains court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which indicates that on September 25, 2007, the applicant admitted to sufficient facts to violating [REDACTED] Chapter 90, section 24(1)(a)(1), OUI-liquor or .08%. The applicant was ordered to pay administrative fees, attend a 24-day program and a half-day BAR program and was placed on probation for one year.

The record also contains court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which indicates that on January 28, 2008, the applicant pled guilty to violating [REDACTED] Chapter 90, section 24(1)(a)(1), OUI-liquor or .08% - 2nd offense. The applicant was ordered to attend a 14-day in-patient program and pay administrative fees, and he was placed on probation for two years.

The AAO may only look to the judicial records to determine whether the person had been convicted of the crime, and may not look behind the conviction to reach an independent determination concerning guilt or innocence. Pablo v. INS, 72 F.3d 110, 113 (9th Cir. 1995); Gouveia v. INS, 980 F.2d 814, 817 (1st Cir. 1992); and Matter of Roberts, 20 I&N Dec. 294 (BIA 1991).

In the instant case, counsel has not provided any credible evidence to support her assertion that the applicant had not been advised of the possible immigration consequences of a guilty plea by either his counsel or the trial court. The assertion of counsel does not constitute evidence. Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1, 3 (BIA 1983); Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533, 534 (BIA 1988); Matter of Ramirez-Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 506 (BIA 1980). Without credible evidence from the court indicating that the convictions have been vacated for underlying procedural defects having to do with the merits of the case, the convictions continue to effect immigration consequences.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
