Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application for Temporary Protected Status was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed his Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on November 23, 2012, 322 days after the expiration of his nonimmigrant status. On February 7, 2013, the director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish he was eligible for late registration.

On appeal, the applicant does not address the basis for the denial of his application; he merely indicates “lack of documents” at Part 3 of the appeal form. The applicant also indicates at Part 2 on the appeal form that he was not submitting a brief or evidence. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Nor did the applicant address or submit any evidence, on appeal, to establish eligibility for TPS and to overcome the director’s findings. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
