DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the applicant's reckless driving conviction was obtained in violation of his constitutional rights. Counsel states that a motion will be submitted to the Los Angeles Superior Court to evaluate the validity of the applicant's conviction. Counsel indicates at Part 2 on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days.¹ However, more than 11 months later, no additional correspondence has been provided by counsel or the applicant. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

The record contains the following:

- Court documentation in [REDACTED] from the Ventura County Superior Court of California, which indicates that the applicant was charged with violating section 23152(a) VC, driving under the influence, and section 23152(b) VC, driving with .08 percent or more alcohol in the blood. On [REDACTED] [REDACTED] the applicant was convicted of violating section 23152(b) VC, a misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to serve five days in jail, attend a DUI first offender program, ordered to pay a fine and was placed on probation for 36 months. The remaining charge was dismissed.
- Court documentation in [REDACTED] from the Los Angeles County Superior Court of California, which indicates that on [REDACTED] the applicant was charged with violating section 23152(a) VC, driving under the influence, and section 23152(b) VC, driving with .08 percent or more alcohol in the blood. On [REDACTED] the complaint was amended to add a violation of section 23103 VC, reckless driving, as count three. On [REDACTED] the applicant pled guilty to violating section 23103 VC, a misdemeanor. Imposition of sentence was suspended and the applicant was placed on summary probation for 36 months and ordered to pay a fine and court costs. The remaining charges were dismissed.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
