DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant asserts, "[p]lease check my request as above the stationery did not include where I kept my error in 2005." The applicant states that he has no further cases pending before the courts. The applicant resubmits court documents relating to his arrests in 2003 and 2005. The applicant also indicates at Part 2 on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days.¹ To date, however, no additional correspondence has been presented. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Felony" means a crime committed in the United States punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term actually served, if any. There is an exception when the offense is defined by the state as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less, regardless of the term actually served. Under this exception, for purposes of 8 C.F.R. § 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

Section 101(a)(48)(B) of the Act provides, "any reference to a term of imprisonment or a sentence with respect to an offense is deemed to include the period of incarceration or confinement ordered by a court of law regardless of any suspension of the imposition or execution of that imprisonment or sentence in whole or in part."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation report reflects the applicant's criminal history in the state of Texas as follows:

1. On June 23, 2003, the applicant was arrested by the Houston Police Department for driving while intoxicated/open alcohol container, a violation of Texas Penal Code § 49.04(c).
2. On June 21, 2005, the applicant was arrested by the Houston Police Department for driving while license suspended, a violation of Texas Transportation Code § 521.457.

The record contains the following dispositions:

- Court documentation from the [REDACTED] County District Clerk, which indicates that on June 28, 2005, the applicant plead guilty to driving while license suspended, a Class B misdemeanor. The applicant was ordered to pay a fine and court cost and was sentenced to serve three days in jail. Cause no. [REDACTED]
- Court documentation from the County Court, [REDACTED] County, which indicates that on September 4, 2003, the applicant pled guilty to driving while intoxicated, a Class B misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to serve 180 days in the county jail, ordered to pay a fine and court costs, complete 80 hours of community service and was placed on community supervision for two years. Cause no. [REDACTED]

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). The applicant's statements made on appeal have been considered. However, neither the acknowledgement of past mistakes nor the applicant's satisfactory completion of all of his court obligations eliminates his convictions. Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.
