DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn and an application for re-registration was simultaneously denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The applicant has appealed the decision and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) for review. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. On April 17, 2014, the director withdrew TPS and denied the re-registration application because on March 20, 2013, the applicant pled guilty to and was adjudged guilty of two misdemeanor counts of assault (Virginia Code § 18.2-57) in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant through counsel indicates at Part 3.1.b. on the appeal form that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days.¹ To date, no brief and/or additional evidence has been submitted to this office. The record only contains a brief addressed to the director requesting the issuance of a Notice to Appear (Form I-862) in order for the applicant to seek a de novo review of his eligibility for TPS in removal proceedings.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to overcome the director's finding and has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
