DISCUSSION: The re-registration application was denied by the California Service Center Director, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of Haiti who is applying for re-registration for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application (WAC 13 901 83054) during the initial registration period, which was denied on August 9, 2013, because the applicant had been convicted of two or more misdemeanors. A subsequent motion to reconsider was denied. The applicant subsequently filed the current application and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application on July 24, 2014, because the applicant had not been granted TPS and, therefore, was not eligible to re-register for TPS.

It is noted that the applicant states on the Notice of Appeal or Motion, Form I-290B, filed on August 14, 2014, that an appeal brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted within 30 days. However, the record does not reflect receipt of a brief or additional evidence. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

Applicant does not address the reasons for the denial. He states only that he needs his Work Permit so that he can work and provide for his family. The applicant does not provide any additional evidence on appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, the applicant has not presented additional evidence. Nor has he addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
