DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. On November 6, 2013, the director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant acknowledges his past mistakes and requests reconsideration and that his TPS be reinstated as he has a family to support.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

Section 101(a)(48)(B) of the Act provides, "any reference to a term of imprisonment or a sentence with respect to an offense is deemed to include the period of incarceration or confinement ordered by a court of law regardless of any suspension of the imposition or execution of that imprisonment or sentence in whole or in part."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation report reflects that the applicant was arrested by the (Texas) Police Department on June 10, 2007 for criminal trespass and on June 26, 2011 for driving with license invalid with previous conviction/suspension.

In response to the notice issued on November 6, 2013, which requested the applicant to provide certified judgment and conviction documents from the courts for all arrests, the applicant submitted a Certificate of Disposition from the [REDACTED] County District Clerk of Texas, which indicated the following:

1. On September 30, 2011, the applicant pled guilty to driving while license invalid with prior conviction/suspension, a violation of Texas Transportation Code § 521.457, a Class B misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to serve four days in jail.
2. On June 13, 2007, the applicant pled guilty to criminal trespass of property/building, a violation of Texas Penal Code § 30.05, a Class B misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to serve three days in jail.

The regulation clearly states that a misdemeanor is a crime “punishable by imprisonment for . . . one year or less, regardless of the term . . . actually served.” [Emphasis added.] Likewise, the regulation clearly states that a criminal violation will not be considered a misdemeanor only if it is “punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less.” [Emphasis added.] The operative word is “punishable,” which indicates that a misdemeanor is defined under the regulation by the maximum imprisonment possible for the crime under Texas law. In this case Texas law (§ 12.22) describes the punishment for a Class B Misdemeanor as confinement in jail for a term not to exceed 180 days and/or a fine not to exceed $2,000. In the instant case, the court documentation submitted reflects that the applicant pled guilty to the charges above, and the judge ordered some form of punishment to each charge. Therefore, for immigration purposes, the applicant has been convicted of the misdemeanor offenses within the meaning of section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

The applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). The applicant’s statements made on appeal have been considered. Nevertheless, there is no waiver available, even for humanitarian reasons, of the requirements stated above. Consequently, the director’s decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
