DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director withdrew TPS because the applicant had failed to submit requested court documentation relating to his criminal record.

On appeal, the applicant asserts, in pertinent part: "I have complete it [sic] the program that was requested for a DUI that I have on record (see document attached) for which I should qualified [sic] for TPS." The applicant requests that his TPS be reinstated.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

Section 101(a)(48)(B) of the Act provides, "any reference to a term of imprisonment or a sentence with respect to an offense is deemed to include the period of incarceration or confinement ordered by a court of law regardless of any suspension of the imposition or execution of that imprisonment or sentence in whole or in part."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation report reflects the applicant's criminal history in the state of California as follows:

1. On August 27, 2012, the applicant was arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department for one count of driving under the influence.
2. On November 16, 2012, the applicant was arrested by the Sheriff's Office of Norwalk for one count of driving with .08 percent or more alcohol in the blood.

On July 15, 2013, the applicant was requested to provide certified judgment and conviction documents from the courts for all arrests. The applicant, however, failed to respond to the notice. Accordingly, on September 5, 2013, the director withdrew TPS.

On appeal, the applicant submits a letter dated August 10, 2013, from a representative of [REDACTED] Inc., who indicated that the applicant had enrolled in a first offender DUI program on November 8, 2012 and had completed the program on August 10, 2013.

This letter, however, is not sufficient as it does not indicate the final dispositions of the applicant's arrests. The director, in her notice of July 15, 2013, specifically requested the applicant to submit certified judgment and conviction documents from the courts.

The applicant has failed to provide any evidence revealing the final court dispositions of his arrests detailed above. The applicant is ineligible for TPS because of his failure to provide information necessary for the adjudication of his application. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
