DISCUSSION: The re-registration application was denied by the Acting Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who is applying for re-registration for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period, which was approved, and subsequently filed the current re-registration application for TPS.

The director withdrew TPS and denied the re-registration application on March 13, 2014, because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States. The director noted that in response to a request for evidence, the applicant submitted final dispositions for her arrests which revealed that the applicant had been convicted of two (2) misdemeanors.

It is noted that counsel for the applicant stated on the Notice of Appeal or Motion, Form I-290B, filed on April 9, 2014, that an appeal brief will be submitted within 30 days. However, the record does not reflect receipt of a brief or additional evidence. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

Counsel does not state a reason for the appeal, and does not provide any additional evidence on appeal.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(3)(iv), any appeal which is filed that fails to state the reason for appeal, or is patently frivolous, will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the application. On appeal, counsel has not presented additional evidence. Nor has counsel addressed the grounds stated for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
