Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254a

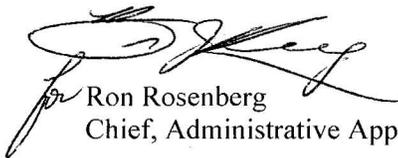

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) in your case. This is a non-precedent decision. The AAO does not announce new constructions of law nor establish agency policy through non-precedent decisions.

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed. The case will be remanded to the director for further consideration.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. On March 6, 2014, the director withdrew TPS because the applicant had failed to submit requested court documentation relating to his criminal record.¹

On September 15, 2014, the director requested that the record be returned to the Vermont Service Center for further review. Accordingly, without addressing the merits of the case, the appeal will be remanded to the director for further processing in accordance with her request.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The case will be remanded to the director for further consideration.

¹The director conducted its initial field review of the appeal as required under 8 CFR 103.2(a)(2)(ii)-(iv), then forwarded the record to this office, which received it on October 14, 2014.
