Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254. On November 27, 2013, the director withdrew TPS because the applicant had been convicted of two misdemeanors in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he is appealing the director's decision "on the grounds that there is no bases [sic] to withdraw my TPS". The applicant states that he has remained eligible for TPS since its initial designation.

An alien shall not be eligible for TPS under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a).

"Misdemeanor" means a crime committed in the United States, either (1) punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or (2) a crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section. For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor. 8 C.F.R. § 244.1.

The term 'conviction' means, with respect to an alien, a formal judgment of guilt of the alien entered by a court or, adjudication of guilt has been withheld, where - (i) a judge or jury has found the alien guilty or the alien has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or has admitted sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilt, and (ii) the judge has ordered some form of punishment, penalty, or restraint on the alien's liberty to be imposed. Section 101(a)(48)(A) of the Act.

Section 101(a)(48)(B) of the Act provides, "any reference to a term of imprisonment or a sentence with respect to an offense is deemed to include the period of incarceration or confinement ordered by a court of law regardless of any suspension of the imposition or execution of that imprisonment or sentence in whole or in part."

The record contains the following:

1. Certified court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the Municipal Court of [REDACTED] Judicial District, [REDACTED] California, which indicates that on February [REDACTED] the applicant was arrested for driving under the influence and driving with .08% or more alcohol in the blood. On May [REDACTED] the applicant pled guilty to violating section 23152(a) CVC, driving under the influence, a misdemeanor. Imposition of sentence was suspended and the applicant was placed on summary probation for three years, and ordered to pay a fine and court costs. The remaining offense was dismissed.

2. Certified court documentation in Case no. [REDACTED] from the Municipal Court of [REDACTED] Courthouse Judicial, [REDACTED] California, which indicates that on July [REDACTED], the applicant was arrested for inflicting corporal injury upon a spouse/cohabitant, a violation of section 273.5(a) PC. On July [REDACTED], the applicant pled nolo contendere to this misdemeanor offense. Imposition of sentence was suspended and the applicant was placed on summary probation for three years, and was sentenced to serve ten days in jail.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1).

In the instant case, the applicant was not eligible for TPS at the time he filed his initial application as he had two misdemeanor convictions. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
