DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the application. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254a. On November 17, 2014, the director denied the application because the applicant failed to submit the required Form I-601, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility and, therefore, remained inadmissible to the United States under section 212(a)(6)(C)(i) of the Act for fraud or misrepresentation a material fact.

On appeal, the applicant apologizes for not submitting the requested Form I-601 and asserts that he was misled by an individual who was assisting with his case. The applicant states that he does not have the funds to file a Form I-601 and requests a 30-day extension to file the waiver application.

The applicant indicates at Part 3.1.b of the appeal form that he would file a brief and/or additional evidence with the AAO within 30 days. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii), an affected party may request additional time to file a brief, which is to be submitted directly to the AAO. To date, we have has not received any additional documents, and the applicant has not filed the required Form I-601. Therefore, the record must be considered complete and the applicant remains inadmissible to the United States.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

We find that the applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
