Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the application for Temporary Protected Status. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Haiti who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §1254a. On December 17, 2014, the director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish eligibility for late registration.

On appeal, the applicant states that he was a student during the initial registration period and, through no fault of his own, his caregivers did not file his TPS application.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state as designated by the Attorney General, now the Secretary, Department of Homeland Security (Secretary), is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Secretary may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
  - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
  - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
    - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
    - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;

(iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

(iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

- (g) Has filed an application for late registration with the appropriate Service director within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of conditions described in paragraph (f)(2) of this section.

Persons applying for TPS offered to Haitians (and persons without nationality who last habitually resided in Haiti) must demonstrate continuous residence in the United States since January 12, 2010, and continuous physical presence in the United States since January 21, 2010. The TPS designation has been extended several times, with the latest extension valid until January 22, 2016, upon the applicant's re-registration during the requisite time period.

To meet the initial registration requirements for the redesignation in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(1), Haitian applicants must have filed TPS applications during the initial registration period, May 19, 2011, through November 15, 2011. If applicants did not file their initial TPS applications during this time period, they must meet the late registration requirements as stated above in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2). Specifically, to qualify for late registration, the applicant must provide evidence that during the initial registration period for redesignation (May 19, 2011 through November 15, 2011) the applicant fell within at least one of the provisions described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2) above. If the qualifying condition or application has expired or been terminated, the individual must file within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of the qualifying condition in order to be considered for the late initial registration. 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(g).

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. Applicants shall submit all documentation as required in the instructions or requested by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). The sufficiency of all evidence will be judged according to its relevancy, consistency, credibility, and probative value. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(b). To meet his or her burden of proof, the applicant must provide supporting documentary evidence of eligibility apart from his or her own statements. Id.

To qualify for late registration, the applicant must provide evidence that during the initial registration period from May 19, 2011 through November 15, 2011, he fell within the provisions described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2) (listed above). If the qualifying condition or application has expired or been terminated, the individual must file within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of the qualifying condition in order to be considered for the late initial registration. 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(g).

The record reflects that the applicant filed the initial application on July 28, 2014.

On August 25, 2014, the applicant was provided the opportunity to submit evidence establishing eligibility for late registration as set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2). The applicant, in response, submitted evidence that he entered the United States on February 13, 2010, and was admitted as a B2 nonimmigrant until August 12, 2010. The applicant did not present evidence of his eligibility for late registration, but asserted that a lack of funds prevented an earlier TPS application filing.

On appeal, the applicant states that he was a student during the initial registration period and, through no fault of his own, his caregivers did not file his TPS application. It is noted that the applicant has not made an assertion that he is the child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant. See 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2)(iv).

As the applicant has not established that he has met any of the provisions outlined in 8 C.F.R. §§ 244.2(f)(2) or (g) for late registration, he has not established his eligibility for late initial registration. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application for TPS will be affirmed.

In application proceedings, it is the applicant's burden to establish eligibility for the immigration benefit sought. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, that burden has not been met.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
