MATTER OF S-H-G-

DATE: SEPT. 3, 2015

APPEAL OF VERMONT SERVICE CENTER DECISION

APPLICATION: FORM I-821, APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS

The Applicant, a native and citizen of El Salvador, was granted temporary protected status. See Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254a. The Acting Director, Vermont Service Center, withdrew the Applicant's temporary protected status (TPS). The matter is now before us on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

On June 18, 2014, the Acting Director withdrew the Applicant's TPS because the Applicant did not submit complete court dispositions relating to a theft offense committed on [REDACTED] 2007, and a driving while intoxicated offense committed on [REDACTED], 1999.

The Applicant indicates at Part 3.1.b of the appeal form that he would file a brief and/or additional evidence with the AAO within 30 days. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii), an affected party may request additional time to file a brief, which is to be submitted directly to the AAO. To date, we have not received any additional evidence and the Applicant did not submit any statement identifying an erroneous conclusion of law or fact in the decision being appealed, as required by part four of the Form I-290B. Therefore, the record must be considered complete and the applicant remains ineligible for TPS.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

We find that the Applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the Acting Director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).
