MATTER OF J-M-A-

DATE: SEPT. 21, 2015

APPEAL OF VERMONT SERVICE CENTER DECISION

APPLICATION: FORM I-821, APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS

The Applicant, a native and citizen of El Salvador, was granted temporary protected status (TPS). See Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254a. The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the application to re-register TPS and withdrew the Applicant's temporary protected status. The matter is now before us on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

On February 13, 2015, the Director withdrew the Applicant's TPS because in response to a notice of intent to deny his re-registration application and withdraw his TPS the Applicant did not submit dispositions relating to an arrest on [REDACTED] 2003, for DUI Alcohol/Drugs, and an arrest on [REDACTED] 2010, for Hit and Run, Property Damage.

The Applicant indicates at Part 3.1.b of the appeal form that he would file a brief and/or additional evidence within 30 days. Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii), an affected party may request additional time to file a brief, which is to be submitted directly to the AAO. To date, we have not received any additional evidence, and the Applicant did not submit any statement identifying an erroneous conclusion of law or fact in the decision being appealed, as required in Part 4 of the Form I-290B.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

We find that the Applicant's appeal fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the Director's decision. The appeal is therefore summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).
