

USCIS Update

September 11, 2008

USCIS HOUSTON OFFICE CLOSURES DUE TO HURRICANE IKE

Harlingen, Tex. office remains open, watching storm's track

DALLAS—U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) announced today that its Houston office at 126 Northpoint will close for business on Friday, Sept. 12 due to approaching Hurricane Ike. All three local Application Support Centers (see locations below) have already closed and will remain closed until further notice.

Customers with naturalization appointments scheduled for Friday, Sept. 12, will automatically be rescheduled for Oct. 21. Permanent residency appointments that were scheduled for Friday, Sept. 12, will automatically be rescheduled for Sept. 26. Customers with INFOPASS appointments will need to reschedule. Visit the Web site at <http://infopass.uscis.gov/> for instructions on how to reschedule.

USCIS' office in Harlingen, Tex. is currently open; however, officials will continue to reassess the situation there depending on the storm's movement.

For general information on other potential office closures, check our Web site (www.uscis.gov) frequently for updates. Customers are also encouraged to call the National Customer Service Center at (800) 375-5283.

Houston Application Support Centers are located at the following locations:

- Northwest (10555 Northwest Freeway, #150);
- Southeast (8505 Gulf Freeway); and
- Southwest (7086 Bissonnet).